CIRCULAR ECONOMY + OPEN SOURCE

transparency collaboration
interconnection

Open Source Circular Economy Days (OSCEdays) is a global event & community to create open resources & possibilities for a global shift towards a waste-free, sustainable and environmentally friendly Circular Economy.

In Berlin we'll be hosting one of the 40+ events that will happen in parallel across the globe between June 9th-13th, connecting different cultures & communities. During 3 days inter-disciplinary experts, enthusiasts and innovators from across the globe work together in order to exchange ideas and solutions – prototyping systems, products and designs for an Open Source Circular Economy.

Venue: CRCLR LAB

The CRCLR Circular Economy Lab is a joint collaboration between Agora Collective and CRCLR

ABOUT AGORA COLLECTIVE

Agora is a Berlin based Coworking Space and Collective that hosts people and collaborative projects based on a philosophy that reflects the values of its community: diversity, self-organisation and social ties.

ABOUT CRCLR

CRCLR is a network for circular economy culture and business in Germany. CRCLR supports its members from various industries to unlock new growth potentials by implementing innovative circular business models. Clusters include food, mobility, construction, energy + water, textiles and plastics.
